

Dress code

The dress code for Eisteddfod performances is neat casual.

Competitors should wear clothing that is comfortable, neat and tidy.

It is a good idea to rehearse performing in the clothing you have decided to wear to make sure that it is comfortable to perform in.

Some competitors choose to dress in performance attire including suits and performance dresses.

Unless the requirements of the section you have entered into state a specific performance dress code, neat casual is the minimum requirement.